Sir:

DUPLICATE INFORMATION DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

Attached is a copy of an Information Disclosure Statement (IDS) originally submitted on July 30, 2001, as indicated on the attached stamp returned USPTO postcard. Copies of the non-U.S. patent references cited in the IDS are also enclosed. Further, it is noted that the USPTO PAIR website indicates that an IDS was received on July 30, 2001 but the website does not include copies of the IDS or references. Accordingly, a duplicate IDS with references is being submitted herewith.

As the original IDS was timely filed, it is believed that no additional fees are due for this duplicate IDS. If, however, the USPTO determines that additional fees are due, they are authorized to charge the undersigned's deposit account no. 14-1140 for those fees.

It would be appreciated if the next USPTO Office Action indicated that the IDS was received and that an Examiner's initialed copy of the attached PTO Form 1449 be returned.
